

Sussex--Stanfield

A pretty home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stanfield, on Thursday evening, Feb. 22, at six o'clock, when their daughter Myra and William H. Sussex were united in marriage by Dr. J. C. Bigelow, pastor of the M. E. church of this place.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengins' wedding March, played by Miss Eliza Sussex, sister of the groom.

As the first strains pealed forth, little Bessie Stanfield, sister of the bride appeared, bearing the wedding ring hidden in a rose, and led the way for the bridal party, who immediately followed and took their places under a pretty arch of smilax.

The bride was gowned in white lansdowne, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. Her veil was artistically fastened by rosebuds.

The bridesmaid, Miss Emma Sussex, sister of the groom, wore a becoming gown of pink dimity, and carried pink roses.

The groom was attended by Randall L. Curry; both groom and groomsman wearing the usual black.

After the ceremony, which was witnessed by the relatives and immediate friends of the family, the party withdrew to the dining room, where a bountiful wedding supper was spread.

Both bride and groom are well and favorably known in this vicinity, having lived here since childhood.

The bride has been one of Steele county's teachers the last year; while the groom is an ambitious and prosperous farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sussex received many beautiful and useful gifts.

They left Friday morning for points in Minnesota, and after a few weeks visit will return home. The best wishes of all their friends go with them.

* { * * *