

Hymeneal

Yesterday Hope lost one of its most talented and popular young women when Miss Grace Blair Gray became the bride of Nelson J. Thompson.

Only relatives were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Hitchcock in the tastily decorated east room of the Gray residence. The profusion of beautiful and costly presents was a reminder of the love and esteem the community holds for Miss Gray, and the expression of its desire for her lifelong happiness.

Mr. Thompson, the fortunate groom, is a young man of industry and honor, winning many warm friends while in our city. His home is in Collins, Ia. where he has a house ready furnished for the home coming.. Immediately after the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Thompson departed for the Twin Cities, Des Moines and other places. They will be at home Sept. 20.