

KNOCKED OUT.

Gustav Anderson, a farmer living about eight miles north of Sherbrooke, came to town yesterday morning in a badly delapidated condition and reported that he had been attacked by four of his neighbors, young men of one family, and robbed of five hundred dollars, his watch and revolver. The victim certainly showed rough usage. His features were beaten into a pulp. One eye was shut and his clothes covered with gore. It is stated that the affair is the culmination of a feud of long standing and should arrests follow it is likely that there will be another side to the story.
