
New Telephone Line

The Northwestern Telephone Co. has a construction force at work in the vicinity of Hope. It is understood that a line is being built from Casselton to Aneta and connection will be made there with the Red River Valley lines. It is probable that they will make no effort to put in an exchange here but will put in a booth.
