

The Literary Thursday evening was not quite so largely attended as the previous ones, but not withstanding this fact, a good program was rendered. The question for debate—"Resolved, that the war waged by Japan against Russia is not in the interests of a higher civilization," was argued on the aff. by Messrs McCosh and Johnson. The judges were M. C. Duea, Lewis Rinde and S. B. Shaner and the decision unanimous for the neg. The following officers were elected for the ensuing month: Pres. Mrs. Jessie Haltiner; Vice-Pres. R. A. Simpson; Secy. Mrs. Jessie Noble; Treas. M. C. Duea. The next meeting will be held at the hall and a one-act comedietta will be presented. There will also be a mixed literary program.
