

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Wheat 56 cents.

There was a sharp frost Saturday morning, and garden truck of all kinds was badly nipped. Along the Goose River it is reported that wheat and oats were somewhat damaged.

The Fourth of July soliciting committee has met with flattering success thus far, and the outlook for a big time in Hope on that day is good. The executive committee is busily engaged in getting up the programme and will be ready to make an announcement next week.

Frank Hill's barn is about completed, and is one of the largest livery establishments in Dakota. Joe Shaw says they may rush in as many teams as they please on the Fourth, but we will be able to care for them.

A couple of nice showers during the week greatly benefitted the growing crops but a heavy and continuous rain is needed to make breaking good.

Walter Lee was struck in the face by a batted ball and quite badly injured. Ben Whitney informed the citizens of Hope that the band would furnish more music if a suitable band stand would be erected. Charley Ward is busy getting the race track in shape for the Fourth. Sheriff Walden will move to Sherbrooke, his official duties requiring his presence there.

The enrollment of the Hope Public School for the past week was 31. Roll of Honor, neither absent or tardy: Mamie Larimore, Willie Bistline, Arno Lang, Fred Smith, Carl Turney, Bennie Wasem, Nelie Wasem and Reuben McLean.
