

Word was received here last Saturday that E. S. Poorman who left for Wisconsin died before reaching his relatives there. He had been sick at Carrington during the winter being affected with dropsy of the heart. His condition had apparently improved and the trip to Hope was made without any visible ill effects. Monday of last week he left to visit relatives in Wisconsin and it is supposed that the excitement and fatigue of the trip proved too much for his weakened condition.

---