

Carl Sander of Blabon died last Friday morning. He had been ill about two weeks with typhoid fever and was in a fair way of recovery when complications set in causing his death. The remains were taken to Grafton for interment.