

Mrs. Stewart Dead

(From The Portland (Mich.) Review.)

Mrs. R. D. Stewart died at her home in this village Sunday noon, of consumption following an attack of pneumonia. She was first taken sick last February and for several weeks her case was considered hopeless. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at Baptist church, Rev. Fistler officiating. Burial in Portland.

Mrs. Stewart was for some time associated with her husband in the bazaar business and was widely known. She was a member of the W. R. C., L. O. T. M. M. and Loyal Americans, carrying an insurance of $1,000 in the latter and $500 in the Maccabees. She is survived by her husband, her two children, Mrs. G. H. Dinsmore and Ray Stewart, the latter being connected with the Review. Her aged mother, Mrs. B. J. Burtch, also survives her.

Deceased was born Sept. 20, 1846 at Penn Yan, N. Y. For some time the family resided on a farm near Collins and are well known there.
