

HUGHES-DAVIS.

On Wednesday, December 11th, at Casselton, N. D., occurred the marriage of Miss May Hughes to Mr. Ira J. Davis, both of this city, Rev Father Quinillan officiating.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. D. J. Gumb of this city and has a host of friends here and at Clifford, where she has spent the greater part of her life. She has been a teacher in the schools of the county for a number of terms. She is a young lady of many graces of mind and person and will prove to be truly a helpmate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand. The groom is a young man of good habits and is quite popular with our young people, having up to about a year ago made his home in this city, but since that time has resided in Aneta and was engaged as a painter and decorator.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are now in Minnesota where they will spend a few days with Mr. Davis' people, after which they will come to Hope for a week's visit before leaving for Vancouver, Wash., where they will make their home. The Pioneer joins their many friends in Steele county in wishing the young couple a pleasant journey thru life.
