

Dr. Fead's condition grew considerably worse and last Friday was taken to a hospital at Fargo for treatment. Saturday afternoon he was operated on and an abscess removed. He is reported getting along quite well and is expected home next week.