

The city officials have recently had the new and repaired fire cisterns filled with water. With the new cisterns put in this summer the city is better than ever supplied with water for fire protection. The fire department is now able to reach the outskirts in any direction without any inconvenience.