

While handling a 22 cal. rifle last Friday Master Louis King of Tower City, who was visiting at the Willis Gray home south of this city, accidentally discharged the gun, the bullet striking the ten year old daughter of Mr. Gray passing across the abdomen making a bad flesh wound. Had the bullet struck an inch deeper the accident would have more than likely proven fatal.