

Miss Jerdis Holt, a domestic in the employ of Wm. Oxton at Sherbrooke, died very suddenly last Saturday and from all appearance there seem to be no doubt but what it was a case of self destruction. Just what the facts in the case may be and the cause of the rash act we will not attempt to say. It is a sad affair to say the least. The remains were given a christian burial at Sherbrooke Sunday afternoon.