
Leg Cut Off.

One of the Italians working on the railroad with the gang stationed near Finley fell from the work-train last Saturday and his leg was cut off just above the knee. He was put on the passenger that evening and was to be taken to the Breckenridge hospital for treatment, but died enroute.
