

Mrs. Saunders Dead

Mrs. Saunders, wife of George Saunders, died at Riverside, Steele county, on Saturday, Feb. 16, 1907, in the seventy-eighth year of her age. The funeral service was held at her late place of residence on Tuesday at 10 A. M., Rev. Batchelor officiating. The interment took place at Hope. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders came to this state from Scotland twenty-five years ago. They enjoyed fifty-nine years of married life. The deceased was a devoted and with her husband a faithful member of the Cooperstown Baptist church for many years. Nine children mourn the loss of a loving mother and rise up to call her name blessed. A large circle of friends and acquaintances unite in expressions of heartfelt sympathy with the bereaved and aged husband and sorrowing children. — Griggs County Sentinel.
