

PRETTY HOUSE WEDDING.

Nuptials of Dr. Rose and Miss Emma R. Hewer.

Wednesday afternoon a pretty house wedding took place at 19 Green street, the residence of ex Mayor Hewer, when his daughter, Miss Emma Ruth, was united in marriage to Frederick Walter Rose, D. D. S., son of Mrs. H. Rose, 25 Glasgow street. Rev. G. F. Davidson, vicar of St. George's church, officiated. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Christman, sister of the bride, the bridal party entered the drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her father. Only the immediate relatives and two or three friends were present.

The bride, always pretty, looked especially charming in a gown of dove grey silk crepe de chene, with Honiton yoke and accordion pleated chiffon bertha, her only ornament being a diamond and pearl sunburst, the gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Laura Rose, sister of the groom, looked very sweet in a resede green silk crepe de chene, trimmed with pink and white chiffon embroidery and carried pink roses. The little flower girl, Nora Christman, niece of the bride, wore a dainty dress of white China silk and carried a basket of pink carnations and smilax.

The groom was supported by Mr. Leonard Hewer, brother of the bride.

During congratulations Miss Pauline Rose McBean played the Bridal chorus from Lohengrin, after which all repaired to the dining room and sat down to a daintily served breakfast.

The bride was kindly remembered by the Sunday school teachers of St. George's church and also by her Sunday school class of young ladies. Her happy disposition and winsome manner made for her many friends who took this opportunity of showing their love and esteem by sending many gifts.

Dr. Rose has for a number of years resided in Cooperstown, North Dakota, where he is very popular and enjoys a good dental practice.

Dr. and Mrs. Rose, amid showers of rice, confetti and old relics, went east for a few days before leaving for their distant home. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.
