

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Butler at noon, on March 4, 1908, when Mr. Harry E. Brown, of Blabon, N. D., was united in marriage to Miss Mamie Wilson, of Aitkin, Minn., the Rev. Oscar D. Purinton tying the nuptial knot. The wedding was strictly a family affair with the exception of two invited guests. After the ceremony and congratulations had been extended the wedding party sat down to a splendid dinner prepared for the occasion under the supervision of Mrs. Butler. The groom is a prosperous Steele county farmer having lived in our neighboring county for a number of years. The bride is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Butler and a lady who has made many friends since coming to Cooperstown. The newly married couple have settled down on their Steele county farm and are followed by the good wishes and congratulations of their friends in which the COURIER heartily joins.
