

BRUDWICK-ERLANDSON.

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 3rd, at four o'clock, in the Mabel Lutheran church, occurred the marriage of Christine Josephine Erlandson to Hans D. Brudwick.

The church was handsomely decorated with green boughs, potted plants and beautiful flowers, and the aisle was carpeted with white muslin and strewn with green leaves. When Miss Esther Thoreson at the organ commenced playing the bridal march the church was well filled with friends of the young couple who had gathered from far and near. Immediately the doors were thrown open and Edna Thoreson and Mabel Olson, bearing an arch decorated with flowers, marched halfway down the aisle where they stopped, and raised the arch for the bride and groom, preceded by their attendants, to pass under. The bride was preceded by Lydia Thoreson, as flower girl, and attended by Edith Olson, Alma Gronlid and Amanda Erlandson as bridesmaids, while Alfred Erlandson, Frank Olson, and Paul Anderson attended the groom as best men. Rev. P. A. Thoreson pronounced the solemn marriage ceremony that made Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brudwick man and wife.

The bride was dressed in white satin silk trimmed with silver beads, and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests went to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was given and a bounteous and delicious supper was served in the tastefully decorated dining room.

The newly married couple received the congratulations and sincerest wishes for their happiness and prosperity, and were also the recipients of many valuable gifts as tokens of good will.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Erlandson and has grown up from a little girl in her parents' home in Mabel township. She is a young lady of many graces of mind and person, who is capable of filling the home she will adorn with happiness and will prove to be truly a helpmate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand.

The groom is a pleasant young man of exemplary habits, who of late has made his home in Duluth, where he is engaged in the real estate business.

This event marks the most important mile-stone in their life. Another home is made, a new start in life is commenced under the most favorable conditions and circumstances. We wish them long life and bespeak for them much happiness.
