Markuson-Nelson Wedding. On Thursday, January 14th, at t ď at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nelson, of Greenr field township, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Anna D. Nelson 9 to Mr. Nels K. Markuson. r Thoreson spoke the words which 8 united these two hearts for the re-B mainder of life's journey. S The wedding ceremony took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, in the r presence of a small circle of relatives ζ and friends, after which a bountiful 3 wedding dinner was served. The bride is one of our most estimable ladies. For a number of years she was employed at the local exchange of the Central North Dakota Telephone Co., and is highly respected by all who know her. groom is so well and favorably known to everybody in Hannaford and vicinity that he needs no introduction to Enterprise readers. Suffice it to say that the citizens bave shown their confidence in him by selecting him as President of the Village Council, and electing him to other positions of trust and responsibility. Hannaford friends, together with their numerous friends throughout state and Minnesota, join in outlier couple a pleas-

1

ζ

1