

Frank Bowe has accepted the position of engineer at the electric light plant and when he gets the hang of things will no doubt make good. George Gardner who has so efficiently run the engine for some time left for Minneapolis last Thursday.