

DIED—On Thursday afternoon, July 14, 1904, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Langford in Cooperstown, Ken- neth, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Houghton, from a complication of diseases. The little fellow was as well as could be July 4th and it is said that he ate too many peanuts, candy, etc., that brought on stomach trouble which was followed by other com- plications. The little boy was a year and eight months old and was a beautiful little boy, the idol of his heart broken parents. The funeral took place in the Methodist church last Saturday afternoon Rev. J. S. DeLong officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery. The loss of their little boy is indeed a very hard blow to Mr. and Mrs. Houghton and their many friends in town and throughout the county deeply sym- pathize with them in their great loss.
