

We have heard that Rev. O. K. Quamme was kicked in the head by a horse last week and died from his injuries. We have seen no report or particulars. He recently moved from this place to Crookston, Minn., where he has a farm. Mr. Quamme came here above eighteen years ago and has had charge of several Lutheran churches in the county. He leaves a wife and several children who have the sympathy of their many friends.