

Lewis Olson, formerly mail carrier on Rural Route No. 2 died at his home east of town last Monday. He has been a victim of consumption for some time. He died quite suddenly and his parents were unaware of his serious condition.