Mrs. Svare Dead.

Mrs. Hans Svare died last Sunday morning at about four o'clock after a sickness of about two weeks, from general sepsis, or blood poisoning. The deceased was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodman Glaspell. She was born in Canada twenty-four years ago, and came to Griggs county with her parents about eighteen years ago last spring, residing here continuously from that time until her death. In 1905 she was married to Hans E. Svare of this place. No children are left as a result of the union. The deceased was a lively, good natured little woman, and had won for herself a host of friends who regret to hear of her demise. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in this city Monday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. H. C. Kishpaugh, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. J. M. Jensen, pastor of the Lutheran church, officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery. The death of their daughter is indeed a hard blow to the aged parents, the blow being particularly hard on the mother who has been prostrated ever since the blow fell. Several sisters and a brother mourn the loss of a dear sister as well as the parents and to all of them the sympathy of their friends is extended.
