

A telegram was received here Monday announcing the death of Mrs. Marie Stadig, at Minneapolis from cancer of the stomach. Deceased first complained last November and had been gradually growing worse. She recently went down to the twin cities to be operated upon but the doctors refused to perform the operation and she died the first of the week. She leaves three children, one of whom has been married and lost her husband. The remains were shipped to Cooperstown for interment.