

Wedding Bells.

Thursday Oct. 20, at the residence of Fritz Splettstasser, of Lincoln township, was enlivened by marriage chimes. His daughter Anna was united in marriage to Mr. William B. Bayman, of Minneapolis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Davy in the presents of some forty guest. Mr. Ira Hall and wife acting as bridesmaid and groomsman. After congratulations were offered all sojourned to the dining room to partake of one of the most delicious suppers ever spread in the northwest. The bride wore an exquisite dress of brown colored silk and wore bridal roses and myrtle.

The bridesmaid wore a costume of changable blue silk with flowers snow-drops and lilac, the groom and ~~grooms~~ men wore black evening suits.

A few nice presents were given to the happy pair as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Gunkel, one dozen napkins and tablecloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall, one half dozen silver tablespoons and one half dozen silver teaspoons.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Splettstasser, a quilt and half dozen towels.

Mr. Louis Vadnie and family, banquet lamp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Linderman, tablecloth.

Mr. Will Splettstasser, one half dozen silver knives and forks. Also gold sugar shell and butter knife.

Miss Agget Vadnie, table spread and head rest.

Mrs. Frank Splettstasser, a pair of pillows.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hall, parlor lamp and album case.

Mr. Frank Splettstasser, and Mr. Louis Gunkel, a silver tea set.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson, bed spread and pair pillow shams.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lowden, set of dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Gunkel, $5 gold piece.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Bowen, the wedding flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayman, will leave soon for Minneapolis where they will reside in the future. May they long life and happiness in be their lot.

E. G. V.