

A genuine surprise party occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Slingsby, Monday evening, Jan. 21, when about twenty neighbors and friends gathered to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Slingsby were the recipients of numerous useful presents, including various articles of tinware and an easy chair, all of which were indicative of the high esteem in which they are held in the community. Remarks appropriate to the occasion were made by Mr. E. C. Butler, of Greenview township, and following these dancing and other amusements were continued until a late hour, when the guests returned to their homes wishing their kind host and hostess many happy returns of the joyous day, and that the choicest blessings might be bestowed upon them during the remainder of their life's journey.

WILD WEST.
