

We are called upon to announce the death of one of Steele county's oldest and most respected citizens which occurred last Sunday morning at the home of his sons west of town, Edward Dodd, Sr. It appears that he retired the night before, feeling fully as well as usual and Sunday morning was found dead—perhaps of heart trouble. The funeral occurred Tuesday. We have been unable to learn any further particulars. The family have the sympathy of their friends.