

A SAD ACCIDENT.

A Five Year Old Boy Meets Death From The Kick of a Horse.

A sad accident occurred on Sept. 12th., 1895, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erb, near Galesburg, N. D. Their little son, Frankie, five years and months old, left the dinner table and went out into the yard to play and was playing at its innocent amusement, when a horse came up too close and kicked little Frankie on the head, from the effects of which he died, Sept. 17th.

The funeral services were held at the parents home and were conducted by the Rev. W. C. Whisnand, of Broadlawn.

A large concourse of friends accompanied them to the Hunter cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. The sympathy of neighbors and friends are with the parents in their sad bereavements.

“One more earthly place is vacant,
One more heavenly place is filled,
Once again has death been with us
And a dear young voice is stilled.
Short the time of pain and waiting,
Born without a tear or sigh;
Blessed Jesus claimed his loved one
And has born him to the sky.”
