

PASSED AWAY.

We are called upon this week to announce the death of A. S., father of J. A. Klovstad, which occurred last night about midnight, at the residence of his son, in this city. Mr. Klovstad came to Dakota some two or three months since, thinking the change of climate would help him, but it was of no avail, the death angel had called and what God ordains must be. Mrs. Carrie Johnson of McIntosh, Minn., and O. A. Klovstad, of Lowry, Minn., daughter and son of the deceased arrived a week ago Wednesday and have been close watchers at his bed-side, until death released him of his sufferings. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the heart sorrowing relatives in their sad bereavement. The remains will be taken back to the old home at Milan, Minn., for interment.
