

morning.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. D. Montelius nee Miss Clara Plank in this vicinity, will be greatly pained to learn of her death which occurred at her home at Piper City, Ills., Monday, Sept. 30th., 1895. Her trouble was a violent form of Appendicitis and was fatal from the first. She was taken sick Sunday while at church and died next morning. The sympathy of the many friends in this vicinity go out to the sorrowing young husband and relatives in this exceedingly sad bereavement.
