

Obituary.

Death has again entered a loving home and taken away a kind mother and devoted wife, and it is once more our painful duty to so state to our readers. At 11 o'clock Tuesday night Mrs. C. S. Moores breathed her last, after a short illness of that dreaded disease pneumonia. She was only ill a few days surrounded by her husband and friends, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral occurred yesterday at the Congregational church at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Eastern Stars, of which order she was a member. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and expressions of sympathy and all that willing hands could do were not lacking.

The relatives from a distance who arrived on the train yesterday were; Carlton Brewster, E. A. Styles, H. E. Styles, E. A. Styles, Jr., of Styles, N. D., and Wm. Moores. Mrs. E. A. Styles, Mrs. Henry Styles, Miss Addie Styles, of Minneapolis and Mrs. Mathews, of Hankinson.
