

Peter Mutz, of Broadlawn, died on the 9th inst. of an abdominal tumor, after suffering for several months. He was taken to Jamestown for burial in the Catholic cemetery. He was an upright young man 23 years of age, and spent the past year with specialists in Fargo and St. Paul, returning home about six weeks ago.