

DIED:—In a mud puddle at the west end of the barn—of heart failure “Ned” Vadnie. The deceased was born at Patch Grove, Wis., about the close of the civil war. Came to Dakota in 1880, and has been an honored and respected resident of Lincoln ever since. The family has the sympathy of all in their sorrow at the loss of this venerable old horse.

Reading is a matter well advised to do.