

The Baccalaureate sermon before the graduating classes of the Hope Public Schools will be delivered by the pastor of the Congregational church next Sunday evening in the Congregational church. Services will begin at 8 o'clock. Seats in the body of the house will be reserved for the graduates and teachers.