

The Hope schools closed Friday after one of the most satisfactory and successful years in its history. The graduating exercises for the common school department were held at the hall last night. Supt. Hasselquist was present and addressed the graduates. The exercises for the high school department will be held this evening. State Superintendent Stockwell will be present.