

The Hope Public schools closed last Friday for a two week's vacation and the scholars are certainly enjoying the holidays, judging from the frequent sleigh rides and the hilarious time they seem to be having every day.