

SCHOOL NOTES.

Erlend Anderson is a new pupil in the Intermediate room.

The following new pupils in the grammar room increase the enrollment to forty-one:—Margaret McLaughlin, Arthur McLaughlin and Lawrence Warner.

Names of those perfect in attendance in grammar room for the month ending December 20th: Ray Nelson, Kenneth Kallen, Willie Jacobson, Lizzie Cyrus, Harry Smith, Belle Carleton and Grace Smith.

Florence Boise is absent on account of sickness.

Floyd Reynolds, and Ralph Rathke are new pupils in the Primary Dept.

Silas Keilor has returned to school after an absence of three months.

Eva Dingle, Georgia Dittus, Katie Fullmer, Elsie Klovstad and Blanche Van Dusen were guests of Miss Gilmore on Tuesday evening of last week.

A number of pupils in the Primary Dept. are absent since New Year's fearing Scarlet fever.

Nina Bogart has started to school again, after an absence of about two months.

Lew Boxen and Mary Lieske are new students in the High School.

Most of the pupils find it hard work to settle down to study again, after two solid weeks of fun.

Every seat in the High School room is now occupied.

Prof. Huff received a pleasant surprise on the last day of last term, when his pupils presented him with two pretty toilet boxes, as a Christmas gift.

August McLaughlin has started to school in Prof. Huff's room.

Quite a number of the pupils took the county Completion Examinations just before Christmas. Of these, Hettie Amsdell and Richard Palfrey, of the 9th grade, were successful in passing all the examinations, and on last Monday received their Common School Diplomas. They are to be congratulated upon having so creditably completed their Common School course. These Diplomas give them entrance to the Freshman Class of any High School in the state, with no preliminary examinations, and also enable them to enter either of the State Normal Schools.

Alfred Wood is a new pupil in Miss Curtis' room.
