

School Notes.

Those having a perfect spelling lesson each day last week in the sixth and seventh grades were Ethel Joslyn, Zella Jacobson, Jessie Pressley, Clara McLean, Georgia Gray and Otis Boise.

George Luce is sick this week and out of school.

Supt. Hasselquist visited the grades last week.

Mrs. Jefferson and Mrs. Kraabel were visitors in the Primary Department last Friday.

Prof. Slater spent Tuesday visiting the Rural schools of Dist. No. 10.

Monthly examinations are given this week. Pupils have all been doing good daily work and good results are expected.

The library is being rearranged, which will make the recording of books easier to be attended to.

The teachers are studying German, reciting each evening from four to five.
