
Larin-Carhart Nuptials.

The marriage of Mr. Eugene Larin and Miss Margaret Carhart was solemnized at Mayville last Wednesday. Mr. Larin is one of the editors and publishers of the Tribune, a versatile writer competent all-around newspaper man and withal a genial, whole-souled gentleman. Miss Carhart is a daughter of President Joseph Carhart of the Mayville Normal school, a young lady of culture and refinement and highly esteemed by all who know her.—Hillboro Banner.

Having a personal acquaintance with the contracting parties we know the bride to be a very superior young lady and the groom a jovial good fellow and polished gentleman. We extend congratulations and wish the happy couple unbounded joy and happiness.
