

T. J. McMahon and Miss Olive Chute were married on Sunday evening last at the Willard hotel parlors by Judge Williams of this village. The bride is a daughter of County Commissioner Chute and is a very estimable and popular young lady, while the groom has lately established himself in the law business. The newly married couple left on Sunday evening for Fairbault. The Republican extends congratulations.—Aneta Panorama.