

At Fargo Tuesday Judge Pollock granted the petition for an injunction restraining the school board of Broadlawn from selling the old school houses. We understand that another vote will now be taken on the question.