

Sunday morning about 11 o'clock fire destroyed Fred Fuller's residence east of Hope, together with all its contents. Not a dollar's worth of furniture or clothing was saved. No insurance. It is not known how the fire originated, but it is supposed from the chimney. Had the wind been from the west the barn, granary, stock etc., would have suffered likewise. Mr. Fuller nor none of the men folks were at home, otherwise it might not have proved so disastrous. The loss is a severe one and Mr. and Mrs. Fuller's friends extend sympathy.
