

In the fire on his Edendale farm last week Frank Hill lost a barn and granary, some grain and several wagons and racks besides numerous others farming utensils. The loss will approximate eight hundred dollars with two hundred dollars insurance. Mr. Hill says he will rebuild before fall.