

H. D. Carpenter informs us that he will soon have the Steele estate in good shape so that clear titles can be given to all lots in the original town of Hope. Good thing for Hope all right.