

Some of the magazines have disappeared from the Hope Commercial Club Rooms. This is not as it should be, and is against the rules of the club as well. If any one member takes the magazines out the rest of the members have no chance to read them and so their value to the Club is lost. It is to be hoped that those taken will be returned, and that in the future they will be read in the proper place—the reading room of the club.