

The Pioneer is a little lame this week on news and general make-up. E. H. Stevens had the misfortune to have a bone broken in his left hand, while attempting to bat one of Johnnie Martin's swift in curves and he now carries his hand in a plaster paris cast.

The little hero of August Ma