

Some twenty new phones have been added to the local exchange since it was put in operation, which necessitates the company adding another section of twenty numbers at Central. This will make about eighty phones on the local exchange.