

The remains of John Gorman, of Duluth, Minn., were brought here for interment last Friday and were buried in the Hope cemetery the same afternoon. Rev. Dingle conducting a short funeral service at the grave. Mr. Gorman has been here for a number of falls, during harvest and threshing time, and is quite well known in this vicinity. Geo. Saunders, brother of Mrs. Gorman, and Mrs. Gorman, accompanied the body from Duluth. Mrs. Gorman, we understand, will make her home with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, who live about ten miles west of town. The Pioneer extends sympathy to the bereaved wife and relatives.
